

Laurentian University
Université Laurentienne

Vice-Provost

Based at Georgian College in Barrie, Ontario, the Vice-Provost reports to the Vice-President Academic and Provost, and works collaboratively with the College to deliver Laurentian University at Georgian programs. The Vice-Provost is responsible for the scholarly activity, budgets and resource allocations of the programs, for partnering with Georgian College, and liaising with the faculty Deans, Federated Universities, and Senate.

The Vice-Provost will provide pro-active leadership with a vision that encompasses the advantages and potential of the Faculties, and a balanced commitment to teaching and research. An important component will be to develop academic pathways through collaborative partnerships to facilitate student success. The ideal candidate will commit to build a thriving academic community, will bring a record of successful academic administrative experience, and will be committed to fostering relationships based on respect and accountability. With a distinguished record of teaching and research, s/he will be appreciative of the wide range of disciplines within the portfolio.

Laurentian University is committed to employment equity, welcomes diversity in the workplace, and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, members of visible minorities, aboriginal persons, and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. It is important that senior administrators are able to communicate in both English and French.

For additional information on Laurentian University go to laurentian.ca.

Applications will be reviewed commencing April 1, 2010 and will be accepted until a nominee is found.

Should you want to learn more about this unique leadership opportunity, please see vpap.laurentian.ca, or contact Robert Kerr, Vice-President, Academic and Provost, or forward your CV, a letter of introduction and the names of three referees in confidence, to the office of the Vice-President, Academic and Provost
Email: lmainville@laurentian.ca